

BioLegend at University of Maryland Flow Cytometry User Feedback Survey

We're conducting a brief survey to better understand your flow cytometry needs and challenges. Your insights will help us develop solutions that truly serve the scientific community.

What's in it for you?

After completion, you will receive a one-time 40% discount code (for most of our Flow cytometry reagents), to use through BIORESCO.

Who should participate?

Anyone working with flow cytometry using both, spectral and conventional cytometers.

Ready to participate?

Offer valid through October 31, 2025.
